S. REMINDS TAXPAYERS ANSWER REVENUE SHARING QUESTIONS

Timothy L. Wheeler, Director of Internal Revenue, reminded taxpayers of the importance of answering the Revenue Sharing questions on Forms 1040 and 1040A.

Order for the Federal Government to distribute Revenue Funds properly to states, townships, and municipalities. Government must know how people live in each local area.

Wheeler said that one of the first Revenue Funds were mailed out in December, Mr. Wheeler said, received 10 million dollars from the federal government and local communities have received 20 million.

of Andover is shown above with some of his pen and ink drawings which are now on exhibit at Bethel Library. Mr. Johnston, a retired army man, has traveled extensively in the far east and Europe. He was born and brought up at Cape Elizabeth. Although he has had no formal art training, his interest in drawing goes back to his childhood when he did sketching on the pages of his school books much to the dismay of his teachers. He specializes in New England scenes and buildings such as the Moses Mason house in Bethel. Mrs. Johnston is the former Polly Hewey of Andover and Bethel. They have three daughters: Melanie Gault of Nashua, N. H., Joyce and Julie of Andover. Mr. Johnston is employed at Andover Wood Products, Andover.

COMMENTS FROM THE OFFICE OF THE TOWN MANAGER

There are three positions on the board of directors for M. S. A. D. #44 that must be filled at the annual town meeting: one for one year to fill an unexpired term; and two three-year terms.

The boards of selectmen and assessors will require a three-year term, as well as a two-year term to fill a vacancy caused by resignation.

The nomination papers for all the offices must be filed with the town clerk 21 days prior to town meeting which makes the deadline Feb. 12.

Three individuals have taken out nomination papers for school director. To date one has asked for selectmen and assessors papers.

The budget committee expects to finalize their recommendations this week. It still appears there will be no increase in the tax rate this year. The total budget will be higher but by using the Revenue Sharing funds to finance part of expenditures the total to be raised by taxation will be approximately the same. The budget committee has attempted to use these special funds only for paying debts or funding necessary items the town would have to appropriate money for in the near future.

To conform with State statute with regard to voting at the annual S. A. D. #44 budget meeting on Feb. 20, the registrar of voters will be available at the Town Office from 7 to 9 o'clock Monday through Friday evenings of next week. The registrar will also be available from 5 to 6 p. m. on those days. The office will be open evenings solely for the purpose of registration of new voters. All who are properly registered in the municipality may vote at the Feb. 20 school meeting.

CUB SCOUT NEWS

Hey, Cubs, don't forget to remind your dads about the bowling date! We'll get together Sunday, Feb. 4 (next Sunday) at 1:30 in the IGA parking lot. From that point we'll drive to Rumford for an afternoon of bowling—two strings for each Cub and two for each Dad. After bowling we'll stop at McDonald's for a "treat." Don't miss this one, it should be a great time.

DADS: Each string costs 25c and the shoes will be donated free. McDonald's will donate french fries but the rest of the tab will have to be picked up by the dads. Thanks for coming.

Not much news this week. Everyone is busy doing his or her 'stuff' and not talking about it. I guess I will have to go calling to see how everyone is wintering. Hey, Cubs, don't forget to remind your dads about the bowling date! We'll get together Sunday, Feb. 4 (next Sunday) at 1:30 in the IGA parking lot. From that point we'll drive to Rumford for an afternoon of bowling—two strings for each Cub and two for each Dad. After bowling we'll stop at McDonald's for a "treat." Don't miss this one, it should be a great time.

DADS: Each string costs 25c and the shoes will be donated free. McDonald's will donate french fries but the rest of the tab will have to be picked up by the dads. Thanks for coming.

CO-OP CORNER

by Suzi Redman

John Snyder, a junior, is training at the Andover Satellite Station to be an electronics technician. He works for Comsat (Communications Satellite), one of five companies operating there. Don Fifield is boss, but "everyone" is helping him
 learn. He has worked since November on Thursdays from 8:30-5:00.

John explained that the "Bubble",
 the common name associated with the site, is a radome which has a big antenna ("the horn") inside used as an emergency back-up. Outside the control building is a 97-foot
 Dish Antenna and a Sugar Scoop
 Antenna for Comsat, AT&T, IT&T,
 RCA, and WUI. All communications are handled on the Dish. The Sugar Scoop is used to transmit communications to the AT&T Black Mountain installation. He has also worked with electrical equipment maintenance. John is studying: 1. How ground stations relate to satellite and worldwide communications; 2.
 Reading a spectrum analyzer — a finding what carriers (a certain frequency that the video-audio communications set up on) are on a certain satellite—b. If they're receiving or transmitting and to whom; 3. How a computer is operated and what it can be used for,
 such as how to get information from the satellite; 4. What an antenna's job is in receiving and the transmission of communications; 5. How the antennas follow the satellite.

John is very interested in his job,
 and plans to continue Co-op next year, "hopefully in the same place."

THIS WEEK AT GOULD
 A quietly busy week lies ahead for students at Gould Academy, as January draws to a close.

Marks for the first half of the winter academic term are due in the school's growing European exchange program. The students, all from Ecole Val d'Arly, a secondary school located in the French Alps,

 will spend the remainder of the Winter term at Gould.

Robert Nicoll, an instructor in transcendental meditation, will arrive on campus Monday, Feb. 5, to conduct a four-day course in the Eastern technique for attaining altered states of consciousness and spiritual peace. Nicoll, a student at Bowdoin College majoring in

 ern thought both here and abroad.
 He spoke to the school and visited philosophy classes here in December.

— Mrs. Nancy Chadbourne's French II Class at Telstar Regional High School has been working on their puppet show production in French.

"Le Petit Prince." This play has 12 characters, and there are 12 in the class. Close planning, isn't it? This play should be on stage in two weeks.

The picture above shows students working on their paper mache heads. This is combined efforts of Language, Art, Home Economics, and Music Departments.

GREENWOOD CITY

Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres. —

The gain of light in the evenings makes the days seem even longer than they actually are. And the January thaw has lifted our hearts for it has opened the door of winter a bit and given us a brief glimpse of warmth. For a time it surely was ice-locked. The worst of it is; it can't last. Here come February and March!

I like the dawn and dusk with their long, deep and mysterious shadows. I think they are my favorite hours. Each good morning now I see the pink of the sky straight from my window by the sink when I do my dishes with Noyes and Patch mountains at either side.

Today dawned in spectacular manner for the entire south eastern sky shimmered in orange and pink. The enchanted glory of it made a lovely display.

My longest hike this week was a lonely one; but it never feels that way to me. There are so many casual observations that I never catch up with them. Here along the trails and in the woods I feel more secure than in the city where I am dependent on so many others. People often say to me, "How do you dare to go to the woods alone?"

My answer is usually the same, "What is the danger except perhaps a fall?"

This day I went on to the pond and crossed to the far shore. The ice was wavy and rough. At a distance a gloomy raven flew over, uttering his guttural complaints about his world. He was riding the updrafts and cruising along the ridges startingly black against his background. Somehow he manages to get food all through the bitter cold months. Later I saw two others. I leaned back against a boulder restricting my view to only the sky and the birds. They seemed to soar through a bottomless sea; their black forms etched against the blue. Their loneliness in the vastness of space was appealing. I followed them until distance claimed them from view.

I could hear the two brooks down pond trickling their way in endless wanderings. These gurgling brooks know not only the forest, but the humid springs, where the deer drink at dawn, and where the raccoon pays his night visit. They have come from somewhere and are on their way to still another place, hence to the sea.

I now took a snowmobile road from the pond following near the same highway. As I passed through the swamp land I breathed a hush which at once attracted my attention. The snowmobile was a bit ahead of me. I saw it was a white one. I saw it was a white one. I saw it was a white one.

Between the ponds I turned right and went toward the little camp on the hill. I stopped as I always do at Turtle Bridge. I'll never forget one big snapper taken from there. He with his cold emerald eyes. Somehow, to me he had an air of

JOHN E. ROLLINS

John E. Rollins formerly of Lewiston, died Friday, Jan. 23, 1973, at St. Peter's Hospital. His home was at 6915 22nd Ave. North, St. Petersburg, Fla.

Born at West Bethel, he moved to St. Petersburg 10 years ago. Formerly a clerk with the Maine Central Railroad, he served with the 325th Engineers, U. S. Army.

He was a charter member of the Allen M. Gayton Post of the American Legion, Ancient Brothers Lodge of Masons, Lexington Lodge of Elks, Kora Temple, Myrtle Shrine, and the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, Portland.

Survivors include his widow, Alice R., two daughters, Mrs. Robert Landon of St. Petersburg, and Mrs. Alice Stearns of Camden.

MRS. ALICE FRENCH SMITH

Mrs. Alice French Smith died of pneumonia on Jan. 23, 1973, in Stratton, Conn. For the past two months she had been a patient in a nursing home convalescing from a broken hip. Since January of 1970 she had been living with her daughter, Mrs. Richard Hamilton, in Bridgeport, Conn.

Mrs. Smith was born in Bethel April 13, 1887, the daughter of Irving and Anna Twitchell French. She was a direct descendant of Captain Twitchell, the first settler in Bethel. In 1774 Captain Twitchell came to this area, then an undeveloped wilderness called Sudbury Canada. He built a great mill on a small island in the Mill Brook near the present bridge at the foot of Mill Hill, the beginning of the settlement which became Bethel Hill. Among the many contributions of the Twitchell family to the early history of the area was the gift of what is now the Congregational to the town of Bethel. Mrs. Smith's grandfather, Dr. Almon Twitchell, was for many years a prominent physician. He built the house on Church Street in which Mrs. Smith lived the greater part of her life.

After graduation from Gould Academy, Mrs. Smith trained in Boston with the New England Telephone Co. She was one of the first group of telephone operators in the country, and for many years she worked for the Van Telephone and Telegraph Company. She was an excellent operator, highly intelligent, alert, resourceful and experienced. Mrs. Smith married the late Daniel Smith, also a pioneer of the telephone system in New England on June 20, 1925. They had one daughter, Maria. Mr. Smith died March 10, 1965.

Mrs. Smith was a member of the Universalist Church. Her great grandfather, Joseph Twitchell, had played a leading role in the establishment of the Universalist Society. When the Society disbanded Mrs. Smith attended the Methodist Church. She had a splendid singing voice and enjoyed singing in the choir.

She was a fine beautician. For many years she worked at the old Dr. Almon Twitchell home, which was representative of the lovely old New England gardens of this area with fine bushes, apple and plum trees, and black berry bushes in a background for old-fashioned flowers.

Mrs. Smith is survived by her daughter and two nephews and a niece, the children of her brother, the late George French.

Private funeral services were held at the Gould Funeral Home this Tuesday morning, Feb. 1, with Rev. Thomas Nelson officiating.
